

Lesson: 67

The Mystery of God Finished Part A

Volume: 6

How long, O Lord our Saviour,
Wilt Thou remain away?
Our hearts are growing weary
Of Thy so long delay.
O when shall come the moment
When, brighter far than morn,
The sunshine of Thy glory
Shall on Thy people dawn?

How long, O gracious Master,
Wilt Thou Thy household leave?
So long hast Thou now tarried,
Few Thy return believe.
Immersed in sloth and folly,
Thy servants, Lord, we see;
And few of us stand ready
With joy to welcome Thee.

O, wake Thy slumbering people;
Send forth the solemn cry;
Let all the saints repeat it,-
"The Saviour draweth nigh!"
May our lamps be burning,
Our loins well girded be,
Each longing heart preparing
With joy Thy face to see.

1. Following his description of the sixth trumpet, what did John see?

"And I saw another _____ come down from _____, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun." Revelation 10:1

2. What did he have in his hand?

"And he had in his hand a _____." Revelation 10:2

NOTE: The book of Daniel, which was to be "sealed," or closed, till the time of the end, is doubtless referred to here. See Daniel 12:4,9

3. What solemn announcement did this angel make?

"And the angel which I saw. . . lifted up his hand to heaven, and swore by Him that liveth forever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, . . . that there _____ be _____ no _____." Revelation 10:5-6

NOTE: Not literal nor probationary time, but prophetic time. The 2300-day period, which ended in 1844, must be alluded to here. See lesson 53. No prophetic period in the Bible reaches beyond this.

4. What did the angel say was to be finished when the seventh trumpet was about to sound?

"But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the _____ of _____ should be finished, as He hath declared to His servants the prophets." Revelation 10:7

NOTE: The mystery of God is the gospel. Ephesians 3:1-6; Galatians 1:11-12; Colossians 1:27 The gospel, then, is to be finished as the seventh trumpet is about to sound.

5. What was John told to do with the little book?

"Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel . . . and _____ it _____." Revelation 10:8-9

6. What was to be the result of the eating of this book?

"It shall make thy belly _____, but it shall be in thy _____ as _____." Revelation 10:9, last part

7. What does the apostle say of his experience in this matter?

"And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth _____ as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter." Revelation 10:10

NOTE: In this is most strikingly foretold the experience of those who proclaimed the advent and judgment-hour message of 1843-44. Joyous in the hope that Christ was coming then, like the early disciples regarding His first advent (Luke 24:21; Acts 1:6-7), they were bitterly disappointed, and found that there was still a work on earth for them to do, as did the early disciples following the crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension of Christ.

8. What words of the angel to John show that both literal and probationary time were to continue yet for a time, and that God had a still further message for the world?

"And he said unto me, Thou must _____ again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings." Revelation 10:11

NOTE: The message of Revelation 10 is the same as that of Revelation 14:6-7; and the later messages of Revelation 14:8-12 answer to the instruction, "Thou must prophesy again," of Revelation 10:11. But all are last-day messages, and indicate that the end of all things is near at hand.
