

Elijah, The Prophet

Baal was a phony god that was worshipped by many,
including King Ahab and Jezebel.

Jehovah put it upon Elijah to prove to the people that he was the true God of Israel.

Satan created Baal to turn people away from Jehovah
God.

It took Elijah to prove to the people that Baal was a fraud.
Elijah knew that he could show the people the truth and make Baal falter.

He told them to slaughter a bull and use it for a sacrifice on an altar.

Elijah told them that Baal would be the true God if he could burn the bull but no fire came.

But then Jehovah God sent down fire and burned the sacrifice and that put Baal to shame.

Even though Elijah had the wood and bull covered with water, both still burned.

The people saw that Jehovah is the true God, that was the lesson that they learned.

King Ahab and Queen Jezebel promoted Baal worship and it was something they came to regret.

Both of them ended up dead and God was pleased with Elijah who was the boldest of his prophets.

14. What is the burden of the threefold message of Rev. 14:6-10?

Fear God, and give glory to Him; for the hour of His judgment is come: and worship Him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. . . . Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. . . . If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of His indignation." Revelation 14:6-10

NOTE: Like the messages of Elijah and John, this is a call to repentance and reform, a call to forsake false, idolatrous worship, and to turn to God, and worship Him, and Him alone. The first part of this threefold message points out the true God, the Creator, in language very similar to that found in the fourth, or Sabbath, commandment. This is the message now due the world, and that is now being proclaimed to the world. Those who are proclaiming these messages constitute the Elijah for this time, as John and his co-laborers did at the time of Christ's first advent.

15. How are the people described who are developed by the threefold message here referred to?

"Here is the _____ of the saints: here are they that keep the _____ of God, and the _____ of Jesus." Revelation 14:12

NOTE: These will be the ones who will be ready to meet Jesus when He comes. They have heeded the Elijah-call to repentance and reform. They have become concerned, not only for their own individual salvation, but for the salvation of their friends and relatives. By this message the hearts of the fathers are turned to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers. Each becomes burdened for the conversion and salvation of the other. There can be little religion in the heart of one who cares not for the eternal interests of his loved ones. When this message has done its work, God will smite the earth with a curse; the seven last plagues will fall, and usher in the great day of the Lord described in the Lesson 79.

LIGHT is beaming, day is coming!
Let us sound aloud the cry;
We behold the day-star rising
Pure and bright in yonder sky!
Saints, be joyful;
Your redemption draws nigh.

We have found the chart and compass,
And are sure the land is near;
Onward, onward, we are hasting,
Soon the haven will appear;
Let your voices
Sound aloud your holy cheer.
